

ROSEMARIE G. EDILLON
Undersecretary
Alternate Member
National Economic and Development Authority

Rosemarie Edillon is presently the Undersecretary of the Policy and Planning Group at the National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA).

Ms Edillon holds a PhD in Economics from La Trobe University in Australia, an MA degree in Economics from the University of the Philippines (UP) School of Economics and an MS degree in Statistics from the UP School of Statistics. She is also a 2019 Presidential Gawad CES Awardee.

Among her major responsibilities is shepherding the formulation of the Philippine Development Plan (PDP). The PDP is an elaboration of the country's priorities over the medium-term and is the blueprint of government policies, programs and projects. She also oversees the monitoring of the PDP implementation. In addition, she is in charge of providing technical advice on policy issues to both the legislative and executive branches of government, especially the committees of the NEDA Board.

Presently, Ms. Edillon chairs the Task Group on Recovery under the National Task Force against COVID19; she also chairs the Technical Working Group on Anticipatory and Forward Planning and a member of the sub-TWG on Data Analytics under the Inter-Agency Task Force on the Management of Emerging Infectious Diseases.

Ms. Edillon also chairs the Social Development Committee-Technical Board and the Technical Committee on Tariff Related Matters and is a member of the Development Budget Coordination Committee of the NEDA Board. She also heads the Secretariat of the Economic Development Cluster of the Cabinet.

Undersecretary Edillon is currently a member of the Board of the Philippine Economic Society, where she used to be President. She is also a member of the Philippine Commission of the UNESCO. She was formerly the Chair of the Macroeconomics Committee of the UNESCAP and the Vice-Chair of the Economic Committee of the APEC,
